2. A flight (roj) consisting of two elements (pary) of MIG-15's will be used to make a simultaneous attack on a B-36D aircraft. "Nuzky" or scissor fighter tactics will be used. For sketches refer to Enclosures 1 and 2 of this report. Element 1 will attack from the seven o'clock high position with only the lead aircraft firing and then pass beneath the B-36D after firing. Element 2 will attack from the five o'clock high position and perform the same type of attack as element 1 except that element 2 will pass over the B-36D after firing. Both attacks will be performed simultaneously.
